

Study Abroad Scholarship Description
Alpha Rho Chapter
Sigma Theta Tau International

Purpose- The purpose of the Study Abroad Scholarship is to assist the recipient with international travel aimed at impacting the health of vulnerable populations.

Amount awarded- $500.00

Qualifications:

Current membership in Alpha Rho Chapter
Travel destination approved by the WVU Study Abroad Program and/or WVU School of Nursing

Requirements:

1. Completion of a 500 word essay
 - Describe how the travel will align with the global health initiative outlined in the STTI “President’s Call to Action”
 - Submit to the President of the Board @ least 2 months prior to planned departure
2. Documentation of contact with a member of STTI in the region affiliated with travel destination
 - Include discussion of current health issues in the region
 - Submit to President of the Board within 1 month of returning from travel
3. Presentation at Annual meeting of Alpha Rho Chapter
 - Provide 15-20 minute summary describing community based project including assessment, planning, intervention and evaluation process
 - Include discussion of relationship to global health initiative of STTI
4. Please email your completed application to Susan McKenrick by November 15th.
susan.mckenrick@hsc.wvu.edu